

Economic Justice in 21st Century Kentucky:
Holding Ourselves Accountable
Honoring the Creator's Gifts

THE DIGNITY OF WORK

and the Rights of Workers

Work honors the Creator's gifts and the talents received from him. It can also be redemptive.... Everyone should be able to draw from work the means of providing for his life and that of his family, and of serving the human community.

Catechism of the Catholic Church, nn. 2427, 2428.
